

Please join us for the next work session of the Long Island Business Council

Friday, April 13th

8:00 am to 10:00 am

Sustainability Institute at Molloy College
7180 Republic Airport in Farmingdale

Guest speakers include:

Dr. Nathalia Rogers
American Communities
Institute at Dowling College
"Small Businesses in a Struggling Economy"

Rachel Gold
Special Counsel to the
NYS Department of Labor

E. Christopher Murray
President
Nassau Council of Chambers of Commerce

Howard Avrutine
Avrutine & Associates,
PLLC & The Cerro Wire
Coalition

Representative
Taubman Companies
(invited)

Dave Winzelberg
Long Island Business News

Topics will include:

Presentation of Federal Study "Small Businesses in a Struggling Economy: Socio-Economic Issues and Measures to help the Small Business Climate"

NYS Governor Andrew Cuomo's labor initiative: "NY Youth Works"

Proposal to amend the NYS minimum wage

The cost of electricity on Long Island and available rate-reduction programs

Projects of regional significance: NY State Planning vs Town and Village Home Rule

Introduction by LIBC Nassau Co-Chair Rich Bivone & Suffolk Co-Chair Bob Fonti

Please RSVP by calling 877-811-7471, or e-mail ck@visionlongisland.org with "LIBC RSVP" in the subject line.

Long Island Business Council is a group of small business leaders who are dedicated to regulatory relief, tax and utility stabilization for the average small business owner in addition to infrastructure investment towards our downtowns. We take our message to Albany and Washington as part of the Long Island Lobby Coalition and other regional initiatives.

The Long Island Business Council would like to thank the following participating organizations:

The Long Island Business Council - 308 East Meadow Ave, East Meadow, NY 11554 - 1-877-811-7471