

PUBLIC EVENT

FRIDAY & SATURDAY, OCTOBER 12 & 13

 AIA Peconic Chapter

PRESENTS AN ANNUAL LECTURE
ON ARCHITECTURE AND THE ENVIRONMENT

“THE FUTURE OF THE EAST END” SPRAWL/THE PUBLIC REALM/THE SPIRIT OF THE PLACE

A Symposium co-sponsored by Stony Brook Southampton and AIA Peconic - The Planning and Governance Committee, Edwin Stromsen AIA, Chair

REVOLUTION OR DISASTER

STONY BROOK SOUTHAMPTON WILL BE A LEADER IN THE ENVIRONMENTAL ISSUES OF THE WORLD WITH IT'S ENVIRONMENTAL DEGREE PROGRAM, AN INSTITUTE FOR ENVIRONMENTAL DESIGN AND ARCHITECTURAL SCHOOL.

THIS SYMPOSIUM WILL EXAMINE INITIATIVES RELATED TO THE REVOLUTIONARY POTENTIAL OF THE SCHOOL, CURRENT LOCAL AND REGIONAL PLANNING STUDIES, GLOBAL CONCERNS AND SOME VISIONARY PROPOSALS.

To be held in Chancellors Hall at Stony Brook Southampton.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 12 8:00 a.m. – 4:00 p.m. breakfast & lunch included

PRINCIPAL SPEAKERS: Lance Brown, FAIA – Architecture + Urban Design
Scott Carlin – LIU Professor of Environmental Science
Dr. Martin Schoonen – Interim Dean of Stony Brook Southampton

PRESENTATIONS: Five Towns Rapid Transit proposal & Sustainable East End Development Strategies study, RELI (Renewable Energy Long Island), various East End Municipal planning studies, a thesis project- A new Town Hall and Urban Design for Riverhead, a visionary multifamily/hamlet project by Maziar Behrooz AIA and more.

PANEL DISCUSSION & AUDIENCE PARTICIPATION

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 13 8:00 a.m. – 4:00 p.m. breakfast & lunch included

“The Duck Project” – Presented by Eva Growney, AIA - Director AIA 150 Grant Program

PRINCIPAL PANELISTS: Bill Reed, AIA, founding member of LEED and Regenesi
Dr. Martin Schoonen –Interim Dean of Stony Brook Southampton
Bob DeLuca, President of Group for the East End
Zak Studenroth, Historian and Director of the Sag Harbor Whaling Museum.
A representative of Suffolk County Department of Parks, Recreation and Historic Preservation.

This premier of "The Duck Project" marks the coming together of key community stakeholders, making a lively exchange of ideas on sustainability with a "Living Systems" approach to preservation and conservation. A guided tour of Hubbard County Park by Assemblyman Englebright, a PowerPoint presentation and a surprise guest will add dimension to the discussions.

REGISTRATION: FRIDAY, $30 per person (includes continental breakfast & lunch)
SATURDAY $45 per person (includes continental breakfast, lunch, bus & walking tour)

CREDITS: Professional Architects can obtain 4 HSW credits for each day for an additional $75 for each day.

RSVP REQUIRED: No later than October 8 for Friday and Saturday;

Call: 631-728-7832 or e-mail: aiapeconic@USA.net

For Additional Information log on to the website: <http://www.aiapeconic.org>

